WINTER COACHING PACKAGE

The winter season is the perfect opportunity to analyse your golf game and make those big improvements before the warmer weather returns and the competitive golf season swings back around.

With focused practise and preparation over the winter, you can set yourself up for your best possible summer of golf in 2019!

This Winter Coaching Package includes:

- 1 x 9-hole playing lesson (old course) - which will allow me to analyse every aspect of your golf game; from your golf swing and overall consistency, to your course management and scoring game.
- 4 x 30 minute lessons - focusing on improving the relevant aspects of your golf game based on the findings of the 9-hole playing lesson.
- 1 x 9-hole playing lesson (old course) - to test your improvements back out on the golf course and further analyse your golf game with a view to future development and your preparation for the start of the golf season in the Spring.

Normal Price: £260

Winter Coaching Package Price: £200 (save £60!)

All lessons include:

Detailed lesson notes/slow-motion swing videos (with commentary) sent to you via email after each lesson. This will help to keep your practise focused between lessons, and therefore maximise your development!
