WINTER COACHING PACKAGE

The winter season is the perfect opportunity to analyse your golf game and make all important improvements before the competitive golf season swings back around.

With focused practise and preparation over the winter, you can set yourself up for your best possible summer of golf in 2020!

This Winter Coaching Package includes:

- 1 x 9-hole playing lesson (on either course, dependent on confidence level)
 - this will allow me to analyse every aspect of your golf game; from your golf swing and overall consistency, to your course management and scoring game.
- 4 x 30 minute lessons - focusing on improving the relevant aspects of your golf game based on the findings of the 9-hole playing lesson.
- 1 x 9-hole playing lesson (on either course, dependent on confidence level)
 - to see your improvements back out on the golf course and further analyse your golf game with a view to future development and your preparation for the start of the golf season in the Spring.

Normal Price: £260

Winter Coaching Package Price: £200 (save £60!)

All lessons include:

Detailed lesson notes and slow-motion swing videos sent to you after each lesson. This will help to keep your practise focused between lessons, and therefore maximise your development!
